General Comment: The SEC has provided a thoughtful and exhaustive analysis of the AOC and, as applicable to the AOC, of the Judicial Council. The Committee deserves the thanks of the entire judicial community and the public we serve for their extraordinary effort. I support implementation of the SEC recommendations. I also support a thoughtful, judicious implementation of those recommendations. As various beneficiaries of AOC services have explained in their comments, care should be taken to adopt the recommendations in such a manner as to keep intact those AOC services which are determined to be necessary to the proper functioning of our judiciary.
