The Judicial Council of California is required by the Constitution to survey the condition of business in state courts and to report and make appropriate recommendations to the Governor and the Legislature. (Cal. Const., art. VI, § 6.) The Court Statistics Report provides detailed statistical data on the volume of business in all courts for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1997. The report combines 10-year statewide court filing and disposition data and county-by-county data for the current and previous fiscal years.

Constitutional and Statutory Provisions for the Judicial Council

The Judicial Council was originally provided for in section 1(a) of article VI of the state Constitution adopted November 2, 1926. This section was amended November 8, 1960. On November 8, 1966, a revised article VI was adopted and the provisions of former section 1(a) were amended and renumbered as section 6, further revised in 1974, and amended in 1994, to read:

Sec. 6. The Judicial Council consists of the Chief Justice and one other judge of the Supreme Court, 3 judges of courts of appeal, 5 judges of superior courts, and 5 judges of municipal courts, each appointed by the Chief Justice for a 2-year term; 4 members of the State Bar appointed by its governing body for 2-year terms; and one member of each house of the Legislature appointed as provided by the house.

Council membership terminates if a member ceases to hold the position that qualified the member for appointment. A vacancy shall be filled by the appointing power for the remainder of the term.

The council may appoint an Administrative Director of the Courts, who serves at its pleasure and performs functions delegated by the council or Chief Justice, other than adopting rules of court administration, practice and procedure.

To improve the administration of justice, the council shall survey judicial business and make recommendations to the courts, make recommendations annually to the Governor and Legislature, adopt rules for court administration, practice and procedure, not inconsistent with statute, and perform other functions prescribed by statute.

The Chief Justice shall seek to expedite judicial business and to equalize the work of judges. The Chief Justice may provide for the assignment of any judge to another court but only with the judge's consent if the court is of lower jurisdiction. A retired judge who consents may be assigned to any court.

Judges shall report to the Judicial Council as the Chief Justice directs concerning the condition of judicial business in their courts. They shall cooperate with the council and hold court as assigned.

Other constitutional provisions dealing with the Judicial Council or the Chief Justice are found in article VI, sections 15 and 18(f). There are also a number of statutory provisions referring to the Judicial Council.

PROFILE OF THE CALIFORNIA JUDICIAL SYSTEM

As of June 30, 1997, the California judicial system consisted of 174 courts and 1,580 authorized judgeships, of which 1,537 were filled. (References to judgeships in this report refer to authorized positions.) The names of judges of the Supreme Court, Courts of Appeal, and superior courts are listed in the California Official Reports.

Approximately 8.9 million cases were filed during fiscal year 1996–97.

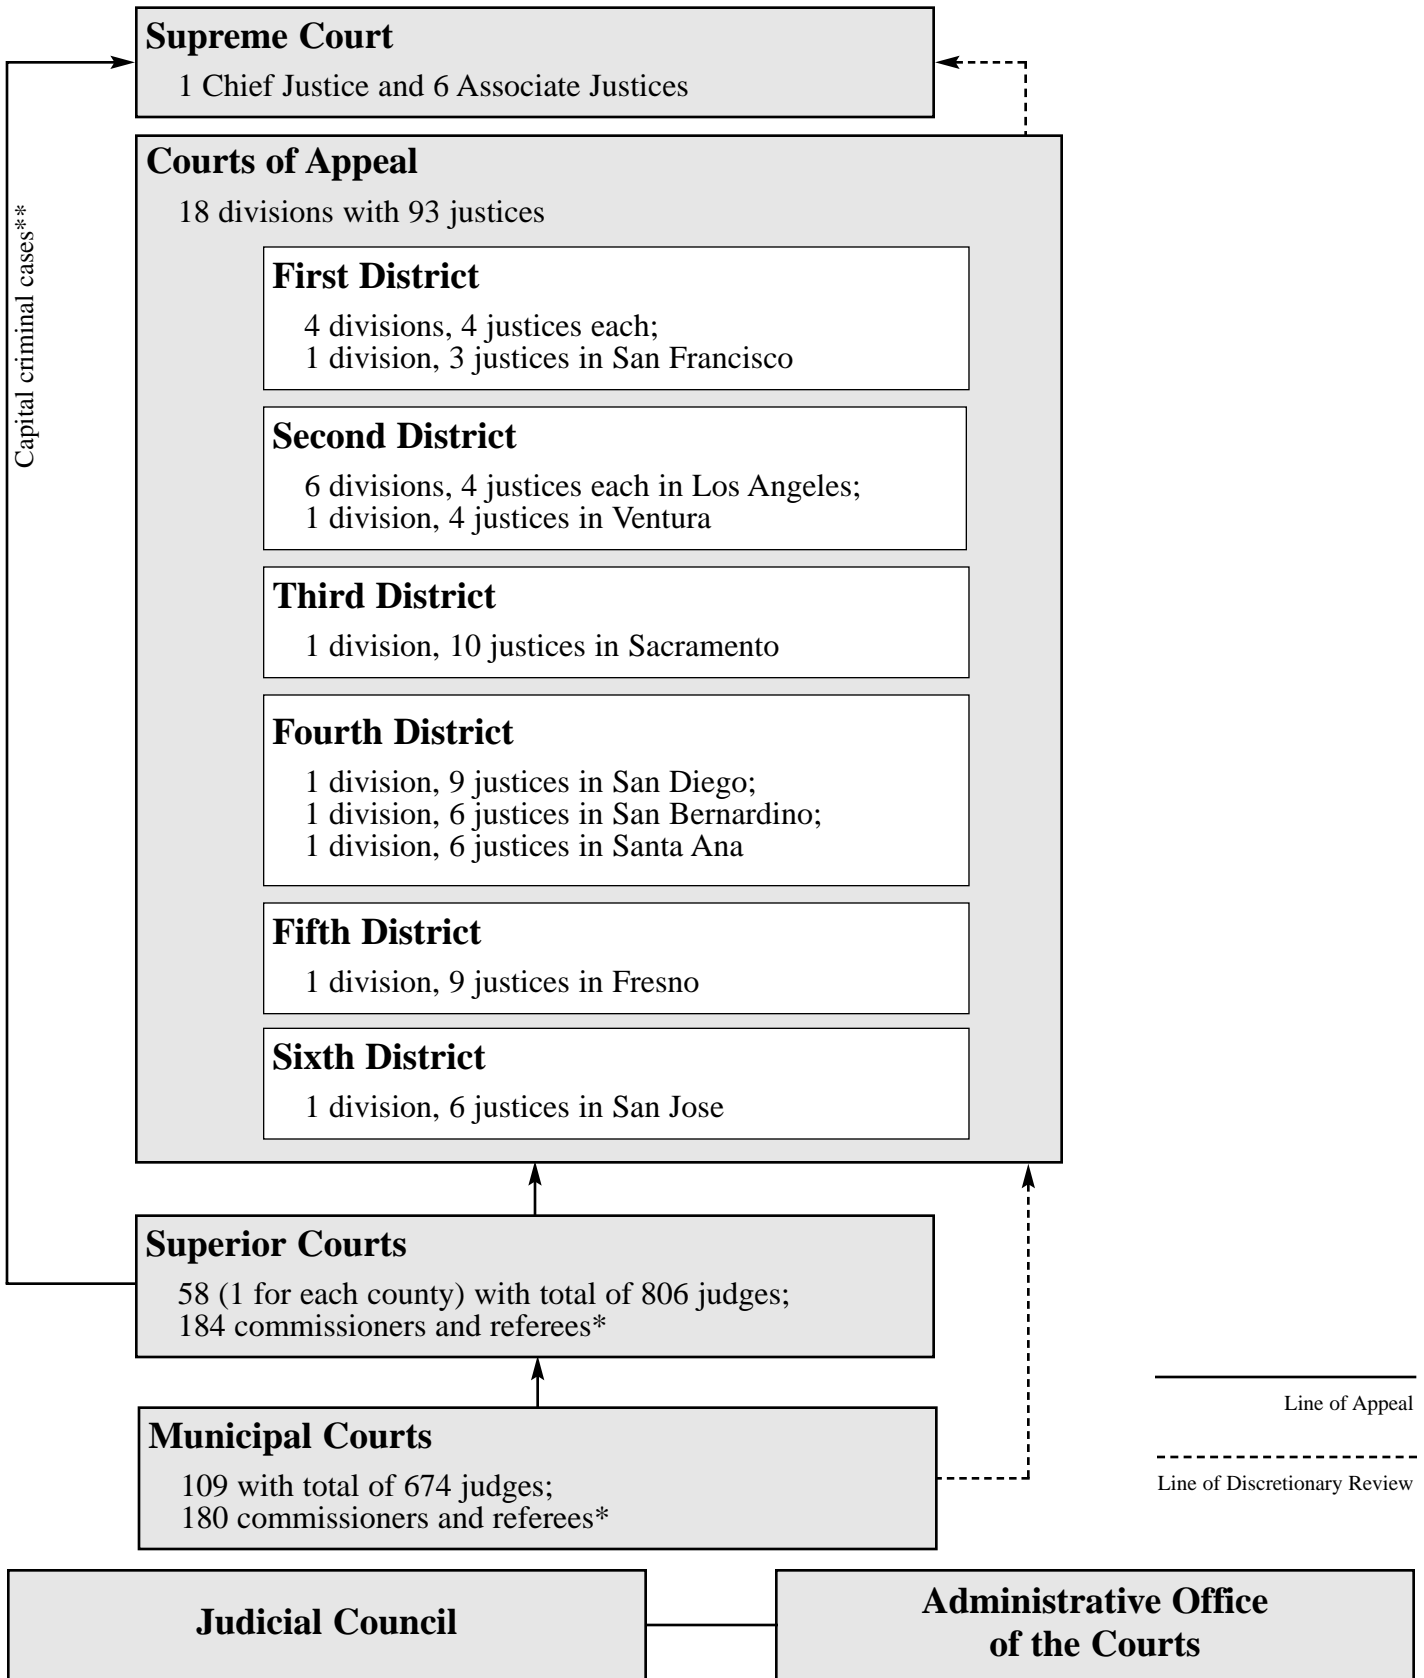

The judicial system costs in 1997–98, not including capital outlay for facilities, total $1.78 billion. The Governor’s Budget for 1997–98 included a successful proposal to restructure the state’s trial court funding system. The proposal consolidated funding of the courts at the state level, ending bifurcated funding between the state and the counties. Counties are contributing $1.2 billion, or 76 percent of total trial court funding, to the state as their share for 1997–98. In 1998–99, their share will drop to $831 million, or 48 percent, based on projected total expenditures.

The California Constitution vests the judicial power of the state in a Supreme Court, Courts of Appeal, superior courts, and municipal courts. (Cal. Const., art. VI, § 1.) The superior and municipal courts are the state’s trial courts; the Supreme Court and Courts of Appeal are appellate courts that primarily review trial court decisions.

The Constitution also provides for three agencies concerned with judicial administration: the Judicial Council, which improves the administration of justice (Cal. Const., art. VI, § 6); the Commission on Judicial Appointments, which votes to confirm gubernatorial appointees to appellate court vacancies (Cal. Const., art. VI, §§ 7, 16); and the Commission on Judicial Performance, which deals with the admonishment, censure, removal, or retirement of judges for misconduct or disability (Cal. Const., art. VI, §§ 8, 18).

CALIFORNIA COURT SYSTEM

As of April 1, 1998 (unless otherwise noted)

* As of June 30, 1997.

 Death penalty cases are automatically appealed from the superior court directly to the Supreme Court.

CALIFORNIA JUDICIAL BRANCH EMPLOYEE UTILIZATION

The table on the following page reflects a breakdown of regular, full-time employees in the California judicial branch (Supreme Court, Courts of Appeal, and Administrative Office of the Courts) according to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission's job, ethnic, and gender categories. Constitutional officers and their attorney and secretarial staffs are excluded from reporting employee composition information and thus have not been included.

The table reflects employee data as of December 31, 1997. Each column includes the appropriate parity figure, the actual percentage of judicial branch employee utilization, and the corresponding number of employees. Totals are listed in the first column and at the top of the table.

Parity figures are for the state of California and have been included for comparative purposes. They are based on 1990 census information provided by the Employment Development Department, Labor Market Information Division. All information provided in this breakdown is consistent with the basic EEO-1 format developed by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission to report employee composition. The only exception is the breakout and examination of attorneys as a job category separate from the other professional staff.

b Or recommendation not noted on docket.
c Voluntary resignations from the State Bar are included for filings from January 1, 1989 through 1990–91. These cases are now filed under administrative State Bar matters.
d Automated docket data beginning January 1, 1989 do not distinguish offenses that on their face involve moral turpitude as opposed to other crimes.
e These cases no longer come directly to the Supreme Court. They are now treated similarly to other disciplinary filings in that initial review is performed by the State Bar Court. Therefore, most cases that would have appeared in this category are now included in the categories below.

Per 100 Appeals Disposed of by Written Opinion
*For Appeals Pending as of June 30, 1997
And Disposed of in 1996-97*

- The ratio of pending fully briefed appeals to appeals disposed of by written opinion is a measure of pending workload as well as judicial productivity. The ratio is an estimate of time a court needs to dispose of pending fully briefed appeals. A ratio of 100 is equivalent to one year, 50 is equivalent to six months, and so forth. The estimate is based on the assumption that the court will decide the same number of appeals in 1997-98 as in 1996-97.
- The Second District had 25 fully briefed appeals per 100 appeals disposed of by opinions in 1996-97, the lowest ratio among the six appellate districts. Given the assumption noted above, it would take three months for the court to dispose of its pending fully briefed appeals.
- The Fourth District had 81 pending fully briefed appeals per 100 appeals disposed of by opinion, the highest among the six appellate districts.
- The statewide average decreased from 51 to 48 pending fully briefed appeals per 100 appeals disposed of by opinion.
- The Sixth District had the largest ratio increase, from 33 to 46.

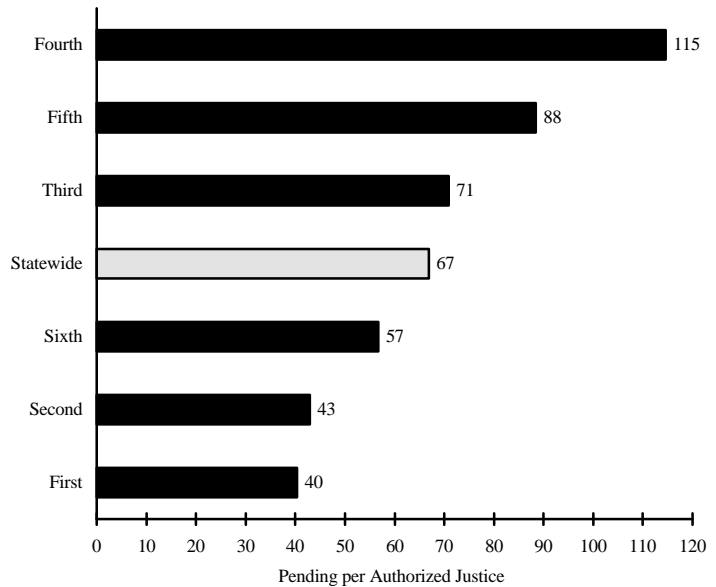

Figure 2

- The Fourth District had the highest number, with 115 pending fully briefed appeals per authorized justice.
- The First District reported the lowest number of pending fully briefed appeals per authorized justice, with 40.

- “Judge-equivalent” refers to the number of authorized justices, adjusted for judicial vacancies, assistance given to other courts, and judicial assistance received.
- The statewide average of opinions per judge-equivalent was 148 in 1996–97, compared to 139 in 1995–96.
- The Second District reported the highest rate of 171 opinions per judge-equivalent — 16 percent higher than the statewide average.
- The First District reported the lowest opinion rate, with 109 per judge-equivalent. However, the First District had the lowest number of pending fully briefed appeals per authorized justice. The lower disposition rate may reflect that fewer cases are available for the justices.
- Beyond an optimum number of opinions (not yet identified), high rates of disposition indicate overload and a need for additional judgeships.

- White portions of the bars represent the medians. The entire length of the bar (white plus dark portions) represents the 90th percentile. Median time refers to the value at which half of the cases fall above and half below. The 90th percentile time is the value at which 10 percent of the cases fall above and 90 percent fall below.
- Statewide median time from appeal to filing of opinion for civil appeals was 528 days in 1996-97, compared to 524 days in 1995-96; 90th percentile time was 968 days in 1996-97, compared to 945 days in 1995-96.
- Division Three of the Fourth District reported 1,204 days, the longest 90th percentile time from notice of appeal to filing of opinion for civil appeals disposed of in 1996-97.
- Division Six of the Second District had the shortest 90th percentile time from notice of appeal to opinion for civil appeals, with 542 days.

- Statewide median time from appeal to filing of opinions for criminal appeals was 410 days in 1996-97, compared to 394 days in 1995-96; 90th percentile time was 637 days in 1996-97, compared to 611 days in 1995-96.
- Division Three of the Fourth District had the longest 90th percentile time from notice of appeal to filing of opinion for criminal appeals disposed of in 1996-97, with 769 days.
- Division Six of the Second District had the shortest 90th percentile time for criminal appeals, with 504 days.

TRIAL COURT COORDINATION STATISTICS

The Trial Court Realignment and Efficiency Act of 1991 (Assem. Bill 1297) required each California trial court to develop and submit to the Judicial Council a plan for coordinating its operations with at least one other court. The act called for implementation of approved plans to begin July 1, 1992. Beginning July 1, 1992, courts were given the option of reporting case filings and dispositions processed under trial court coordination. The coordinated workload included in this report does not represent the full extent of coordination efforts taking place throughout the state. However, the reports submitted provide examples of case types being processed within trial court coordination agreements.

Under regulations adopted pursuant to the Chief Justice's constitutional authority (Cal. Const., art. VI, § 6), California trial courts are required to submit the Summary Report, Calendar Report, Addendum 1D and 1E Reports, Form 2C, and Report of Assistance to the Judicial Council on a monthly basis. Judicial Position Reports are required each quarter. Summary Reports contain case filing and disposition data. Calendar Reports include data on the number of cases set for trial in superior courts. Form 2C is used to report the number of cases awaiting trial in municipal courts. Addendum Reports and Form 2C are used to calculate case-processing time for the superior and municipal courts respectively. The Report of Assistance and Judicial Position Report are used to calculate judicial position equivalents.

GLOSSARIES

SUPREME COURT GLOSSARY

The definitions provided in this glossary are intended only to provide context and a general understanding of the information contained in this publication. These definitions are not to be relied on as legal authority or cited as authoritative.

Attorney Disciplinary Proceedings. Proceedings concerning possible suspension, disbarment, and public or private reproof of attorneys for alleged violations of law or rules of professional conduct. Recommendations of the State Bar are reviewed by the Supreme Court as a matter of course. Also include proceedings in which opinions were issued on petitions by attorneys for full review of State Bar recommendations and on petitions for reinstatement from previously disbarred attorneys. Supreme Court practice as to review of the State Bar's recommendations is changing.

Automatic Appeal. Criminal appeal by operation of law directly from a superior court to the Supreme Court upon imposition of a death penalty sentence.

Civil. An appeal or original proceeding concerning a case that is neither a criminal nor a juvenile delinquency proceeding.
